CONGRESS, ON WEDNESDAY. In the Senate, on motion of Mr. Semple, a resolution was adopted directing the Military Committee to enquire into the expediency of organizing the militia upon a specified basis.

Mr. Archer of Va. spoke upon the Oregon question and against the Notice. He went on to how that our title to the whole of Oregon was ot clear and unquestionable

On motion of Mr. Niles, the Senate went into secutive session.

The House was engaged nearly all day on the fliver and Harbor bill. In Committee of the Whole, amendments were proposed, making apropriations to almost every river and harbor in he country, and all rejected. The bill was reoried to the House, and the appropriations to Providence Harbor, Newark Bay and Havre de Grace ($30,000) were agreed to. The appropriaion to Tennessee River ($100,000) was lost. A pretty angry debate occurred between Mr. Schenck of Ohio and his colleague, Mr. Fries, a account of a motion of the latter to appropri ale $50,000 to the "Bebb and Schenck Subterrane an Railroad," (employed to carry runaway ne groes from Kentucky to Canada.)

SANDS' SARSAPARILLA. TARDLY an inferior to the ravages of the M Small Pox on land were those of the Scurvy within the last seventy or eighty years, at sea. Now in consequence of improved diet the use of acid and other causes, its victims are comparatively few. Scrofula, however, from the fact of its being hereditary, is far less easily conquered. In Sands' Sarsaparilla it nevertheless meets with antagonistic power too strong to be resisted, and notwithstanding its tenacious hold upon the system, is subdued by that preparation. There are few, very few cases we believe, where a fair trial has been given to this preparation, in which it has failed to cure either Scrofula or any form of ulcerous or cutaneous disease. of ulcerous or culaneous disease.

PERUVIAN GUANO. WE are now receiving a supply of this impor-tant fertilizer, from the agent of the Peruvian Guano Company. The superiority of the genu-ine Peruvian Guano has led to various attempts in England, and latterly in the United States, to import and sell that of a very poor and sometimes worthless quality, under the name of Peruvian Guano. Farmers should be careful to ascertain the origin of what they buy, to avoid imposition. The only genuine Peruvian Guano brought to this country, is shipped by the Guano Company of Lima, under the authority of the Peruvian Government. Every cargo thus shipped, is consigned to the agents of the Company in New York and Baltimore, and from one of these agents it is sent to us. Purchasers may therefore rely upon getting from us the genuine Peruvian Guano.

WALKERTON FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers the above place for sale. It is

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. THE Wild Cherry Tree will soon become the emblem of health. Its triumph over Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Croup, and Liver Complaint, is now complete. It cures those diseases, when all other remedies fail. Chergymen, Physicians and Editors, commend it as the best remedy ever before known. Dr. Skillman, of Boundbrook, New Jersey, uses the Balsam in his practice for all lung and liver affections, when too obstinate to yield to other remedies. Dr. Hoffman, Huntingden, Penosylvaria, cured a child of Paul Schweeble of Asthma with it, after he declared he could do no more with his medicine, and the child must die. Thomas Read, Esq., merchant, and Dr. Hoffman, both certify to this astenishing cure. A. Williams, Eq., Counsellor at Law, 58 William street, was cured of the Asthma of twenty-four years standing, by only one bottle of the Balsam. Hondreds have been restored to perfect health by this Balsam, after the last ray of hope from other readicines had fled. We publish facts only—we state only true cures, and have no occasion to holster up this medicine by the customary array of forged certificates.

Thompson's Corporate Synte of Tar and Wood Nartha, for the cure of Palmonary Consumption, and all complaints of the Threat and Longs.

It is not our practice to notice the various popular medicines of the day, but in the present instance we are induced to deviate from our ordinary rule, from the considence we have in the medicine, and the truth of the statements in relation to it. It would be worse than uscless for nat og eive our apinous of the merits of this preparation, when we can cite testimony of so much more weight, for the manner in which an article is received, and stands in the place where it originates, where from its use the public can judge of its value, has much to do in forming us character as a remedial agent. This Syrup is used and recommended by members of the Faculty of the Medical College in Philadelphia.

Such testimony is alone sufficient to entitle it to public confidence. Again, the low price at which it is sold places it within the reach of every one. In our estimation, this article possesses superior claims to any other medicine within our knowledge for these forms of disonae. This lavaluable medicine is prepared only by S. F. Improved Plough. THE subscribers, under the firm of GEORGE WATT & CO., have established in the eity of Richmond a Manufactory of Ploughs, &c., just below Mr. James Harden's Livery Staally improved, and worthy of patronage, they ask an attentive reading of the tollowing description and recommendation of Watt's Cuff-Brace AND GUAGE, OR CENTRE DRAUGHT PLOUGH.

This Plough was invented and PATENTED a few years ago by Mr. Wait, a native of Hanover, but at the time a resident of Alabama. As tittle effort has been heretolore made to introduce it to the public through the press, its excellencies are known to comparatively few. It has, how-ever, one essential evidence of character-ir STANDS WELL AT HOME.

The peculiarities in the construction of this

Together with the usual variety of Patent Mecines, Painters' Colors and Brushes, White beam, the ends penetrating the extending upright or helve of the mould-board-the whole being secured together by screws and nuts. The posiof the mould-board, makes it less liable to choke. The beam, having no bolt or mortice through it, is stronger and more simple; and, should it break, it may be renewed at less expense. The handles are straight, (as well as the beam,) except at the upper ends, and fastened in the usual manner, with screws and bolts, to the heel of the Plough These bolts serve as pivots, on which the wood-work turns; thus, when the screws of the cuffthose two fastening the lower ends of the handles, and the one fastening the beam to the handleare slackened, and the handles are pressed, the he Plough is made to run deep or shallow, as tircumstances require. Again: by driving down the screws are slack, the beam is turned to the By drawing the key back, and tightening the screws, it is reversed—thus giving or taking away land to suit small or large corn, &c. This makes it strictly the Guage or Centre Draughs Plough. To guage or centre draught a plough is to bring the connecting point of the bar (or swingle tree) and clives in a straight line, drawn from a point of the animal's shoulder (where the draft is taken) to the centre of resistance on the mould-board; thus, if a line, drawn from the centre of resistance, through the connecting point of the clives and bar, should strike above that point of the shoulder, the plough would run too deep; it below, too shallow; if to the right, it would not take the land; if to the left, it would take too much. Hence the great importance of guaging or centre-draughting the Plough, instead of altering the back band, which is often necessarily put so far back as to throw the burthen upon the loin-where, according to the structure of the horse, Nature never designed a weight to be carried. Last, though rery important, this Plough cannot alter from the set given to it by the ploughman, unless it should break-it cannot lose or gain either land or draught, but remains permanent. That these properties belong to this Plough, is attested by certificates from gen-tlemen of intelligence in Hanover, King Wil-liam, New Kent and Charles City, already published by us in a handbill of 28th October. Those certificates are too numerous to append to this already extended notice, we can only reter the en-quiring public to them as fully sustaining all that we have said of the implement. Among the names of Ezckiel S. Talley, Laney Jones, William F. Gaines, Carter Braxion, James H. Christian, Braxton Garlick, Miles Eggleston, Richard A. Hunley, Henry D. Gentry, Gilson Via, Benjamin Tyree, Thomas French, Anderson King, Havel Ellyson, Temple Ellett, Mitchell Adams, George Catier and Richard Atkinson, most of this community will recognize large, practical and successful farmers, whose word and judgment may be confidently relied upon.

The patentee of the Plough, an experienced mechanic, may be found generally at the estab-lishment, and will take pleasure in explaining its principles to all who wish to understand them. A card of simple directions will accompany the Plough if desired. We have experienced blackciety, and last Fall, though no premium was of-fered, the Henrico Agricultural Society, at the recommendation of the Committee, awarded a sit-rer medal to the patentice.

It is our purpose to have constantly on hand a full supply of the above Plough, of all sizes, with wrought or cast points, and of the most improved kinds, all of which we expect to sell as low as ordinary Ploughs are sold in the City mar-We offer for sale rights of counties in

THE subscriber offers the above place for sale. It is situated at the intersection of the Frederick-burg Rail Road, and the road leading from Richmond to Louisa Court House, nine miles from the former place. It contains two hundred and sayt-four acres, one hundred of which are cleared, and substantially enclosed. There are thirty acres seeded in wheat, and twelve in rye, all of which lok well; twenty acres were seeded in Herds Grass and Clover last Spring. were seeded in Herds Grass and Clover last Spring. There is a good meadow of several acres, which yields about fifteen thousand pounds of Hay, of good natural grass, annually. There is a small Orchard of bearing trees, and a large one of the choicest fruits, from Sinton's Nursery, set out by the subscriber last year.

The improvements are a large Brick Dweiling House, and the usual Out-houses, all in good repair. A Tavern was for many years kept at this place, and it offers many inducements to one disposed to engage in that business. This place is remarkably healthy, and the water equal to any in the country.

The subscriber is disposed to sell a great bargain, particularly to one who would purchase his Horses, Stock, Provisions and Farming Implements.

The terms will be very liveral—say one-fourth in cesh, the balance in three equal annual payments.
